5. Notice of the lifting of suspension of liquidation of entries of subject merchandise during the period 01/01/2013 through 12/31/2013 occurred with the publication of the notice of initiation of administrative review for the 08/2014 anniversary month (79 FR 58729, 09/30/2014). See Note below. You shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated countervailing duties for subsequent entries of subject merchandise at the current rates.

NOTE: The notice of initiation of administrative review for the 07/2014 anniversary month (79 FR 51548, 08/29/2014) included the initiation of four of the companies listed above, but inadvertently omitted one company. That fifth company was included as a correction in the notice of initiation of the 08/2014 anniversary month (79 FR 58729, 09/30/2014). As noted above, the notice of the lifting of suspension of liquidation of subject merchandise during the 01/01/2013 through 12/31/2013 occurred with the publication of the notice of initiation of administrative review for the 08/2014 anniversary month (79 FR 58729, 09/30/2014), because the initiation of all companies for which a review was requested was complete on that date.

6. The assessment of countervailing duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated countervailing duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated countervailing duties before the date of publication of the countervailing duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date of payment of estimated countervailing duties through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.
